Angela Treend had a family vacation in June to celebrate our 10 year wedding anniversary, and we wanted to find a photographer who could take photos to celebrate the occasion. We found Alvarado Photograhly online and we are so happy we chose them for our photos! From the very beginning, Jess was quick in responding to questions via email and phone, and she was so friendly that she put our kids and us at ease on the day of the photoshoot. She suggested a hidden cove at Ko'olina that was just breathtaking, and she

 We used her in Hawaii on a family vac year photo's wedding anniversary, and we chose Alvarado 2 · about 8 months ago knew lots of different poses that felt really natural and captured our personalities and the beautiful scenery perfectly. Every photo came out stunningly beautiful!! We would definitely recommend Alvarado Photography to anyone visiting Hawaii, you will not be disappointed! We only wish she was here in California so we could book Alvarado Photography for all of our special occasions! Her work is absolutely beautiful!!

Loved working with Jess! She was awesome with my twins! She got down & dirty in the sand and really took the time to get great family shots. Working with 1 11month old is hard enough let alone 2 11month olds! We loved the pictures and would recommend choosing her to do your session. You wont be disappointed!

We recently used the Alvarado's for the second time, and I just can't say enough great things about them. We had the first shoot done when we spent a week on Oahu last year. This second time, we were fortunate enough to have spent 6 months on the Island for work at the University. We loved the work Jess and John did the first time, when our son was 1.5 years old, and we wanted to get our photos again to commemorate our stay when he was almost 2.5. We scheduled a shoot just before Christmas, and although they were very busy with Christmas card portraits, they found a spot on the schedule for us. Unfortunately, that morning, our son came down with a terrible stomach bug, and we had to cancel as Jess and John were in the car driving to the shoot. They were very understanding, and we rescheduled for a few weeks later, after everything slowed down. We decided to do the shoot at the same place we did the first one (Ala Moana beach), which is a perfect spot where you can get shots with Diamond Head and Waikiki in the background one direction, and the open ocean in the other direction. Jess and John were fabulous. They were cheerful and ready to shoot when we arrived, remembering details about us and our lives from our hour together over a year ago. They were great with our son (again), getting him to smile, play, and have a great time even though he started out being a bit shy. They got great candid shots, great posed shots, and I even liked some of the more 'corny' poses they had us do. At the end, as they had packed up the equipment, a rainbow appeared over the water, and John grabbed his camera again to get a shot of us walking towards it. A beautiful conclusion to another wonderful session with the Alvarado's. We'll be back on Oahu again next January, this time with the newest addition to our family--a baby girl due in March. You can be certain well be giving Jess and John a call as soon as we land to schedule another family shoot!

We just got our photos from our wedding back and we are so impressed by the quality of them. We knew they would be good but we had no idea how pretty Jess and John could make our little family look. We are so glad that they were recommended to us. These photos will be our window to our wedding day for years to come and we could not be happier. My new husband posted some of them on our blog if you need to see how wonderful of a job they really do. <http://betsytennis.blogspot.com/2012/10/so-stinkin-awesome.html>

My husband and I decided to get pictures taken while we were on our honeymoon in Hawaii during September of 2012. I looked at a few different Oahu photographers online and Alvarado Photography caught my eye. Not only was the photography done very VERY well, but I really liked the variety of the scenery in the portfolios. Every picture was beautiful and the backgrounds were so different! This told me that the photographer knew the island well and after seeing the package pricing (which is very affordable, especially looking at other photographers) we decided to contact Alvarado Photography for more information. I received a prompt response from Jess and after a few emails we decided to go with Alvarado Photography to do our pictures. She gave me great recommendations on which beaches to choose from and I really appreciated that since we had never been there before and had no clue. She also helped us out by giving us detailed directions to the beach that we would be shooting at. Payment of the deposit was easy because she sent me a paypal invoice. Once we were in Hawaii, Jess left me a message the night before our appointment. Not only was she giving me a reminder, she also included how much time we should give ourselves to get there. We chose Ko Olina beach because there were so many different landscapes in the sample pictures we looked at (Jess included photo #'s from her portfolios to give us an idea of what the different beaches looked like). We met Jess in the parking lot and she walked us down to the most secluded beach area I saw while we were in Hawaii. It was beautiful.. We took many pictures in several different settings and it was exactly what we wanted. Jess was very personable, made us feel comfortable during all of the posing and even my husband had fun! We finally made it back home after an amazing honeymoon and I could hardly wait until I got the confirmation email for proofing. The website was easy to log into and maneuver. I can't express to you how happy I was going through the proofing for the first time. The pictures turned out so well, she did such a terrific job helping us capture memories that will last with us the rest of our lives. I had a hard time narrowing the pictures down to the 40 available for the package we had chosen, they really were that good. Overall, we had a wonderful experience with Alvarado Photography. From start to finish we received exceptional service which isn't easy to come by these days. I would definitely recommend Alvarado Photography if you are considering (if you aren't, you should be!) having pictures made while you are visiting the Oahu.

Alvarado Photography is the best! We were able to go to Hawaii & from the moment I first emailed Alvarado, they were incredible professionals. They responded right away & went to great lengths to make things work for us. I had so many questions & they answered them all & were so flexible! The pictures turned out great & we had such a great time taking them :) Thank you so much Jess for all your hard work! I would highly recommend Alvarado Photography to anyone that is visiting Hawaii.

 Kiki and John Arongay When my husband (then fiance) was looking for photographers online, he stumbled upon Jess and John's website and was blown away. Their shots were so unique and beautiful, we asked for an appointment immediately. Once we met and talked with them, we were sure we had found our photographers. Working with John and Jess was a dream. They are so accommodating and professional and always made us feel at ease. And when your planning a wedding on your own, like we were, it's so wonderful to feel so assured that your photography is in the good hands of Jess and John's solid teamwork. We're so happy with both our engagement and wedding photos, that it was a struggle to choose our favorites. Our marriage license agent gave us this advice: "whatever you spend on for your wedding, choose the best photographers you can because in the end, those are your memories." I know we did with Alvarado Photography.

Thank you so, so, SO much John and Jess! Christian and I thoroughly enjoyed working with you. If anyone out there is searching for a photographer, I highly recommend Alvarado Photography. They photographed our wedding on Oahu in November, and were so professional and so graceful that the experience was so easy. Planning a wedding is tough, but Jess always responded to my emails so quickly and was punctual on both occasions we met. Her and John made the day of flow, they kept to our timeline and took great portraits and candid shots. Thanks, again!

Alvarado Photography is the BEST! They are a husband and wife who made us feel so comfortable and our pictures came out better than we could have imagined. My family and I have just moved here and have not really been able to explore the different beaches. They helped find a location close and easy for us. We have two little ones and the pictures they took for us were beyond beautiful. We would defiantly recommended them to everyone as well working with them again! Thank you guys so much!!!!

WE LOVE ALVARADO PHOTOGRAPHY! They made us feel so comfortable. They felt like they were part of our family. They knew the exact poses to place us in that would result in the perfect photos. I will admit, I found them on the internet and at first I was a little worried because I only contacted them by e-mail and sent them a deposit. Through the process I found them to have the highest integrity and attention to the details that made me confident that I made the correct decision. They are thorough communicators and I knew they would be there on my wedding day. The end result is that they were very punctual, professional, caring, organized and artistic. I refer all my friends and family to them and I have no reservations in recommending Alvarado Photography for professional photographs. We plan to use them for family photos and anniversary photos in the future. Thanks John and Jess! You are the best!

We were looking for someone to take family pictures for us. A couple of coworkers suggested that we call John and Jess since they had done pictures for their family. Jess was very friendly, responsive, and organized and we were able to quickly coordinate a time. When we met with John and Jess we knew immediately that we had made the right choice. They were very patient and friendly and were able to put our two little children at ease. They loved the little animals that Jess had brought. Throughout the photo shoot our kids were happy and engaged. The end result was great!!! John is a very talented photographer, the pictures looked very natural. The only problem we had was deciding which pictures to choose. We will definitely be calling them the next time we are looking for family pictures.
